On no more than four additional sheets of paper, please answer the following questions as fully as possible. Please type. Number each page. Put your name on each page. Staple to cover pages.

A. Activity Proposal. Please describe the specific independent creative work you intend to do and the time you intend to spend doing it as fully as possible.

B. Motivation. (Yours) Why do you wish to pursue this work? How does this work relate to your academic, professional, and/or creative goals?

C. Experience. What previous experience have you had doing the kind of work you propose? List any awards you have previously received for creative work. Please also submit samples of related work with this application.

D. Motivation. (Ours) Why should the Hutton Honors College support you in this endeavor? (Remember: this is not a scholarship or financial aid application, but an application for an award to support creative potential.)

E. Budget. As realistically as possible, submit a detailed and itemized list of the expenditures required to support your work. Acceptable items include books and periodicals, necessary travel, and essential material costs. Room and board expenses are acceptable for necessary travel at all times. Living expenses in Bloomington may also sometimes qualify. Tuition costs do not qualify at any time. Awards may not be made until a complete and clear budget is presented and evaluated by the Committee.

Reminder: You must have two faculty recommendations for this award.
