To apply provide the following information in as succinct a form as possible (use the back of this form or attach a separate letter): Write a description of no more than 500 words that fully describes the thesis. Include a bibliography and/or some evidence of progress already made toward completion of the thesis.

Be sure that the description of your project is intelligible to a reader not in your discipline. List specific costs associated with the completion of your honors thesis. You should provide a budget of these costs that includes the amount of $250 for printing and binding your thesis. List other costs related to your work. The amount of the award usually reflects your budget total, but we are willing to consider special needs that may help you complete your work.

Note: All students are expected to submit a bound copy of their thesis to the Hutton Honors College.

All applicants must attach an unofficial IUB transcript to this application.

If you are packaged with need-based federal financial aid (for example, Stafford loans, Pell grants), and you receive one of the HHCs grants, awards, scholarships, or prizes, your award may not be paid-out in the form of cash funds (i.e., as money paid into your Bursar account), but instead, may be used by IU's Office of Student Financial Assistance (OSFA) to reduce your student loan burden.

Please use the back of this sheet (or write a separate letter) that answers the following questions about the award applicant: How long, how well, and in what context do you know the applicant? Has the student completed all the pre-requisites for an honors degree in your program? How many meetings have you had to discuss the applicant's thesis? How would you rate the significance of the thesis to your discipline? To the student's intellectual and/or professional growth? Is the applicant engaged in the research necessary to complete the thesis? Is the applicant likely to complete the honors degree? Why should the Hutton Honors College make an award to this applicant?

Please print or type. If you write a separate letter, please attach this page as a cover sheet.

Thank you.
